Ever wondered how the whole Bible fits together?
Ever thought about what the Old Testament is all about?
Ever pondered if there's more to learn about God than what you learnt at Sunday School?

If you are at the stage where you would like to explore more about what the Bible says from beginning to end, then maybe the Moore College Correspondence Course is for you.

What is the Moore College Correspondence Course?

It's a course that takes an overview of the whole Bible, tracing the big themes of God's great plan of rescue from the creation of the world to its final conclusion in the future.

Who is it for?

It is for anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of the Bible's message. It is ideal for someone who knows about different bits of the Bible, but would like to see how it all pieces together. It doesn't matter if you're new to the Christian faith or have been a Christian for many years.

How is it taught?

Each member of the course receives a helpful handbook to work through and we meet as a group fortnightly (roughly) to study a chapter of the book. The evenings consist of a straight lecture from David Craven (Rector of Holme Eden and Wetheral with Warwick) or Richard Tulloch (Team Rector of the Eden, Gelt and Irthing Team Ministry), and times for discussion as a group.

What is the commitment involved?

You pay £30 to enrol on the course, which gives you the handbook, and the opportunity to have an exam marked and a certificate awarded at the end if you so wish! (The assessment part is optional.) There are ten sessions, with a few hours' homework to do in between each session. We meet on Thursdays, starting on 19th January 2012 at St Martin's Vicarage, Brampton.

How do I find out more

Ask David Craven or Richard Tulloch for a booking form and a leaflet with more details about the course. See you there!
