

Platinum Light

J.King

5      D                      G/D                      A/C#                      D                      G                      D

1. You prom-ised at your coro - na - tion,                      For Com-mon-wealth and
2. To lead a peo - ple you did swear,                      With sword of truth, meas

8      Em                      A                      Bm                      G                      D                      A                      G                      A

for Na-tion,                      To serve with - out dis - cri-mi-nat - ion.                      God save the ured and fair,                      And God's right hand through cons-tant prayer.                      Long live the

Verses 1-3

Verse 4

12

D D

Queen!
Queen!

all.

16

5. With sceptre orb and book, These solemn vows you took, And trusting

21

in God's call You prayed for strength to govern one and

Last verse (6)

24

all. Queen! God save the Queen!

3. With selflessness gave of your life
Through triumphs and through pain and strife
As daughter, sister, mother and wife.
Long may you reign!

4. Resistant to corrosive spite
Your shield of platinum pure light,
Cast in your majesty and might.
God save us all!

5. With sceptre, orb and book
These solemn vows you took
And trusting in God's call
You prayed for strength to govern one and all.

6. As three score years and ten have passed,
Your heart and mind remain steadfast,
Though empires fall you constant last.
God save the Queen!
God save the Queen!